FOR and SINCE WHEN...? and HOW LONG...?

---

Practice Set 1

December 29, 2025

1 Exercise 1: Choose FOR or SINCE

1. I've been waiting for over an hour.
2. She has lived in London since 2015.
3. They haven't seen each other since last Christmas.
4. We've known each other for a very long time.
5. He has been working here since he graduated from university.
6. I haven't eaten anything since breakfast this morning.
7. She's been studying English for three years.
8. They have been married since 1998.
9. I haven't spoken to him since last Monday.
10. We've had this car for six months.
11. He hasn't visited his parents since Easter.
12. I've been interested in photography since I was a child.
13. They've been playing tennis for two hours.
14. She hasn't called me since her birthday.
15. We've lived in this house for ages.

Rule Reminder:

- Use FOR with a period of time (for 3 years, for 2 hours, for ages)
- Use SINCE with a point in time (since 2020, since Monday, since I was a child)

2 Exercise 2: Complete the Sentences

1. I haven't seen Sarah for two weeks.
2. They have lived / been living in this apartment since 2020.
3. How long have you known each other?
4. She has been a teacher for ten years.
5. I haven't eaten meat since I was 18.
6. We have been waiting for the bus for 30 minutes.
7. He hasn't played football since his accident.
8. How long has she worked / been working in that company?
9. They have been friends since they were children.
10. I have had this laptop since last year.

Note: For verbs like live, work, and study, both Present Perfect Simple (have lived) and Present Perfect Continuous (have been living) are correct with FOR/SINCE. The continuous form emphasizes the duration more.

3 Exercise 3: WHEN...? or HOW LONG...?

1. When did you start learning English?
2. How long have you been learning English?
3. When did they get married?
4. How long have they been married?
5. When did she arrive in Brazil?
6. How long has she been in Brazil?
7. When did you last see Tom?
8. How long is it since you last saw Tom?
9. When did the meeting begin?
10. How long has the meeting been going on?
11. When did he move to this city?
12. How long has he lived in this city?

Rule Reminder:

- Use WHEN...? to ask about a specific time in the past (past simple)
- Use HOW LONG...? to ask about a period of time (present perfect)

4 Exercise 4: Write Questions

1. When did you start your job?
I started my job three years ago.
2. How long have you been working here?
I've been working here for three years.
3. When did she move to Paris?
She moved to Paris in 2019.
4. How long has she been living in Paris? / How long has she lived in Paris?
She has been living / lived in Paris since 2019.
5. When did they buy their house?
They bought their house last summer.
6. How long have they had their house?
They have had their house for about six months.
7. When did you last see him?
I last saw him two weeks ago.
8. How long is it since you (last) saw him? / How long haven't you seen him?
I haven't seen him for two weeks.
9. When did the concert start?
The concert started at 8 PM.
10. How long has the concert been going on?
The concert has been going on for two hours.

5 Exercise 5: Correct the Mistakes

1. ~~I've been living here since three years.~~
Correction: I've been living here for three years.
Explanation: "Three years" is a period of time, so use "for".
2. ~~She has worked in that office for 2018.~~
Correction: She has worked in that office since 2018.
Explanation: "2018" is a point in time, so use "since".
3. ~~How long did you live in Japan? (He still lives there)~~
Correction: How long have you lived / been living in Japan?
Explanation: Use present perfect because he still lives there. Both simple and continuous forms are correct.

4. ~~When have you been studying English?~~
Correction: How long have you been studying English?
Explanation: Use “How long” for duration, “When” for specific time.
5. ~~I haven't seen her since two weeks.~~
Correction: I haven't seen her for two weeks.
Explanation: “Two weeks” is a period of time, so use “for”.
6. ~~They are married since 2010.~~
Correction: They have been married since 2010.
Explanation: Use present perfect with “since”, not simple present.
7. ~~How long did she start working here?~~
Correction: When did she start working here?
Explanation: Use “When” to ask about the starting point, not “How long”.
8. ~~I know him since we were at school together.~~
Correction: I have known him since we were at school together.
Explanation: Use present perfect with “since”, not simple present.
9. ~~When did you have that car? (You still have it)~~
Correction: How long have you had that car?
Explanation: Use present perfect and “How long” because you still have it.
10. ~~He lives in London for five years.~~
Correction: He has lived / been living in London for five years.
Explanation: Use present perfect with “for” + period of time. Both simple and continuous forms are correct.

Key Grammar Points Summary

FOR vs SINCE

- FOR + period of time (for 3 hours, for 2 weeks, for ages, for a long time)
- SINCE + point in time (since Monday, since 2020, since last year, since I was young)

WHEN...? vs HOW LONG...?

- WHEN...? asks about a specific time → use Past Simple
When did you start? / When did it happen?
- HOW LONG...? asks about duration → use Present Perfect
How long have you been here? / How long has it been?

Verb Tenses

- Present Perfect (have/has + past participle) is used with FOR and SINCE when the action continues to the present or has a connection to the present
- Past Simple is used with WHEN to talk about a finished time in the past
